

JUN 23 1964

Paul L. Pamphilon, Jr., E.
CIA 1-04 (L.E. Pamphilon)

L. E. Pamphilon, Head of Radio Firm

L. Edward Pamphilon, a radio engineer and executive and a collector of antique automobiles, died Saturday of complication following surgery at Providence Hospital. He was 55.

Mr. Pamphilon, who was also an employe of the Central Intelligence Agency, was president of the Suburban Broadcasting Corp., which owns and operates Radio Station WRSC in State College, Pa.

A collector of antique automobiles most of his life, he owned a 1911 Mr. Pamphilon Stanley Steamer Runabout, a 1918 Stanley Steamer touring car and a 1923 Rolls Royce Piccadilly roadster.

In connection with his hobby, he joined the Antique Automobile Club of America in 1945, serving as a member of the directorate, vice president, national activities director from 1947 to 1949 and as executive secretary from 1950 until his death. In 1954, he won the Duryea Trophy for his work in behalf of the Club.

He also maintained memberships in the Veteran Motor Car Club, the Horseless Carriage Club, the Rolls Royce Owner's Club and the Veteran Motor Car Club of Great Britain.

Mr. Pamphilon entered the radio broadcast industry in the engineering department of the National Broadcasting Co. in New York in the late 1920s.

He was a member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers, the Richard Vaux Masonic Lodge, Philadelphia Consistory, and the Lu Lu Temple Shrine, also of Philadelphia.

He is survived by his wife, Lily, of 7510 Persimmon Tree, Bethesda.